November 2022

Wisconsin Gossellers and looking ahead! - Leadership team notes

We are not able to have a workshop this year at Cedar Communities. There was an issue with their schedule. It seems like Saturdays were not a great option for them. But they will let us know if any future weekends would work in the springtime.

We are looking at a different location for a workshop in March. Martin is working out the details with the other leaders.

There is also talk of a visit from our friends in Essen sometime in 2023, but that hinges on travel conditions - however, this is something both groups are very interested in doing soon.

We're finalizing locations for our future rehearsals. We'll announce them as soon as they are finalized.

The Dec. 10 rehearsal will be at 1st Congregational in Waukesha (where we sang on Sept. 11). Looking forward to seeing you again!

David heard about a singing group called "29:11" who will be in the Sheboygan area around the first Saturday and Sunday in March. It would be a fun group to watch perform.
